

FINAL

MINUTES OF THE MEETING
(tour – Clean-to-Green Facility, Magnolia Park, Orange County, eastern shore of Lake Apopka) of the
HARRIS CHAIN OF LAKES RESTORATION COUNCIL

March 1, 2013

The Harris Chain of Lakes Restoration Council held a tour of the Clean-to-Green Facility, Magnolia Park, Orange County, eastern shore of Lake Apopka at 10:00am on March 1, 2013.

Members Present

Skip Goerner, Vice Chairman
Sid Grow
Robert (Bob) Johnson
Lloyd Woosley
Keith Truenow
Richard (Rick) Powers P.G.
Don Nicholson

Members Absent

Hugh (Dave) Davis II, Chairman
Edward Schlein, M.D.

Tour Summary

The tour began at Magnolia Park at 10:00 a.m. with Dr. Dan Canfield, University of Florida (a member of the Council's technical advisory group) providing an overview and detailed presentations at various stages of the Clean-to-Green facilities and operations.

Dr. Canfield presented information on the following aspects of the facility: water quality, turbidity, dredging, project scale, cost, and environmental benefits.

The tour ended at 12:15pm.

Others in attendance:

George Hemingway, consulting forester
Ron Hart, LCWA
Dennis Renfro, FWC (a member of the Council's technical advisory group)
Walt Godwin, SJRWMD (a member of the Council's technical advisory group)
David Herbster, DEP (a member of the Council's technical advisory group)
George Skene, Photographer – Orlando Sentinel (left the tour ~10:15am)
Kraig McLane, SJRWMD
Elias Jahna, Jahna Dredging
Scott Leinback, Jahna Dredging
Leon Seale, AMEC, Inc.
Charles Clark, LCWA Board of Trustees
Dorothy Clark, citizen
Richard Royal, citizen
Linda Bystrak, Ocklawaha Valley Audubon